YOEMEN WIN CONFERENCE FLAG

BARTLETT PLAY YOEMEN TO-NIGHT

PRACTICE TILT 8 P. M.

Keeping fit and in good trim for their coming bi-district game with Smithville on Friday night, December 7 the Yoemen will play Bartlett here Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at Yoemen field.

The game with Rockdale was cancelled following the turn of events that proved the Yoemen conference champions. The Bartlett team comes well recommended.

MRS JULIA COLLEY BURIED IN GAUSE

Mrs. Julia Colley, 79, pioneer Texan and native of Fayette County, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dan Cass in Gause Monday night, November 19, 1934, at 9:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Colley had been an excellent health, especially in the last two years. Her sudden illness came nine day sbefore her passing. The death of the noted pioneer woman came as a shock to the people of the county as well as the immediate family of deceased.

Mrs. Colley was born on November 8, 1855 in Fayette County. When a child of five years of age she moved to Milam county and to Gause with her parents the late William and Virginia Murray. They established the old Murray home at Gause, a plantation settlement to which they brought slaves just before the Civil War. The old home is a land mark in that community.

Mrs. Colley had been a member of the Baptist Church for 50 years. She

STORES TO CLOSE THANKSGIVING DAY

Cameron stores will be closed Thanksgiving day as has been the custom for many years.

The Churches will claim the citizenship in the morning hours with appropriate programs arranged.

Later in the day many planned to see the Texas-A. & M. game at Austin the annual classic. Other attractions will take some from the city while more planned to remain at home for the pleasures the city here affords with a respite for the day from business and cares.

Game With Regal Tigers Canceled

Fans will be disappointed that the sudden turn in events made necessary the cancellation of the game between the Yoemen and Rockdale Tigers here Wednesday night.

Instead of the Tiger game Coach Wood has matched a game with the Bartlett team to be played on Yoemen feld beginning at 8 Wednesday night.

VETERANS ON TRIAL IN FEDERAL COURT

Three former world war veterans and Legion members were on trial in Federal court in Waco this week. They are L. Van Perkins, former state commander; Frank Walzel and J. C. Tucker of Cameron.

Testimony was being taken. The charges allege forgery involving indorsement of veterans checks for government compensation. Three witnesses testified Tuesday and all said they had not given authority to have their checks cashed and had not indorsed them and had not received the funds.

Richard Holt who has been appointed to a place in the office of Attorney General McCraw, is the defense attorney.

Our Town

By J. B. White

It's hard to realize it but, you know, Christmas is just around the corner now and most of us here in Cameron have hardly begun to think about it, much less get ready for it.

That isn't so of our wide-awake merchants, though, because already in the stores you can see plenty of evidences that they have been "Christmas-minded" for quite a while. Along with their regular, up-to-the-minute stocks, they have placed quite a nice assortment of Christmas things which will give to the residents of this community a good selection of gifts for their loved ones and friends.

Wouldn't it be a fine thing if all the residents of Milam County who do any Christmas shopping (and we hope everyone will do some) would begin right now and get their shopping out of the way in order to avoid those terrible rushes that take so much of the pleasure and happiness away from the average Christmas? It would be so much better for the merchants, for the shop people and for everyone concerned if we would all do this, but alas, we know we might as well be talking into space.

It's just human for most of us to put off as long as possible what we know we are going to do eventually, isn't it? Why this is, we don't know, but we do know that there isn't anyone anywhere who is more guilty of this very thing than we are.

However, if we get just a few persons to put on a little speed as a result of reading this article, that we will relieve the rush just that much and make this worthwhile.

Uncle Sam is anxious to hurry us up a bit in this regard. If you have packages you want to send to friends or loved ones in other places, the postoffice officials will appreciate it greatly if you don't wait until the last minute to do your mailing. They have some other suggestions that we mention here that will help relieve the usual congestion during the holidays if the residents of Milam County will keep them in mind.

1. All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed, using strong paper and heavy twine.

2. Articles which may be easily broken should be carefully packed and marked "Fragile." Liberal use of excelsior or like material should be used around breakable toys, and such articles.

3. All parcels containing perishable articles should be marked "Perishable."

4. Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, postoffice box, or rural route number, and typed or plainly written "in ink."

5. Postage must be fully prepaid on all mail.

6. To assure delivery on Christmas Day, if mailed at proper time, the use of a "Special Delivery Stamp" is advised.

7. All valuable parcels should be registered or insured—the fees are reasonable.

Above all do your shopping and mailing early.

B SQUAD YOEMEN WIN FROM ROGERS

Yoemen sailing under the B squad colors and looking to the maroon privileges of 1935 defeated Rogers here Friday afternoon 20 to 7.

Three young backs on the Cameron team, Turner, Peck and Joe McLane ran wild in a great exhibition of offensive play and completely smothered the opposition.

In all respects the Yoemen played good football and Coach Wood was pleased with the showing of his prospects for 1935.

Big Film to Feature Bill At Milam

Something in the nature of a startling precedent was set in Hollywood recently when fildom's highest ranking stars joined voices in a thunderous burst of praise for Grace Moore's superb performance in the starring role of Columbia's musical romance, "One Night of Love," the current engagement at the Cameron Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. December 4 and 5.

Mary Pickford, Maurice Chevalier, Ruth Chatterton, Norma Shearer, Herbert Marshall and Gloria Swanson were among those who sent unsolicited panegyrics to Miss Moore and the executives of Columbia Pictures following a private preview in Hollywood on the occasion of the completion of the pretentious production.

Grace Moore Newcomer

The amazing reaction of the screen's elite to "One Night of Love" is strikingly noteworthy since Miss Moore, a famous internationally known figure on the operatic and concert stage, is comparatively a newcomer in Hollywood circle. The tremendous ovation accorded her first really ambitious film venture by screendom's great bespeaks the de-

$150,000 IN CHECKS ARRIVE FOR FARMERS

Distribution of approximately 2900 second payment cotton checks was begun Tuesday morning at the County Agent's office. Milam county has received approximately $400,000 in the first and second rental payments and will receive an additional sum of approximately $150,000 as a parity payment. By the end of 1934, Milam County will have paid to cotton, corn-hog, and cattle raisers approximately $650,000 out of agricultural adjustment funds.

Cameron-Smithville Game to Be Played Here

Just as we are going to press we are informed by S. A. Cottle that the Cameron-Smithville game would be played on Cameron Athletic field Friday night, Dec. 7.

We are issuing the Herald earlier than usual this week in order to take Thanksgiving off. Details of the game will be published next week.

COTTON OFFICIAL TO SPEAK NOVEMBER 30

Correcting an error in the date of the coming address of J. W. Gorham of the cotton allotment board, Geo. Banzhaf, county agent, says he will be in Cameron on November 30 instead of the 28th as published last week.

Mr. Gorham will speak to the cotton farmers at the court house at 1:30 p. m. Friday November 30.

Cotton Report

There were 38,104 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Milam County from the crop of 1934 prior to November 14, 1934, as compared with 47,428 bales ginned to November 14, 1933.

Cameron Yoemen, coached by L. C. Wood, have won the conference title in District 25 in one of the few closely contested races in Texas Class B Football.

Yoemen won by a half game, emerging from the race with only one loss to Belton and two ties, one with Rosebud and one with Rockdale. Yoemen have the lowest loss on points of any team in the district allowing only four touchdowns.

Proof that a defense is often as important as offense in winning has been demonstrated again.

The 1934 edition of Cameron Yoemen is a distinct compliment to Coach Wood. It is a first year team and its record is the best in the conference. Coach Wood once again has demonstrated that he is the best Class B Coach in Texas and already Cameron is looking forward to greater things in 1935.

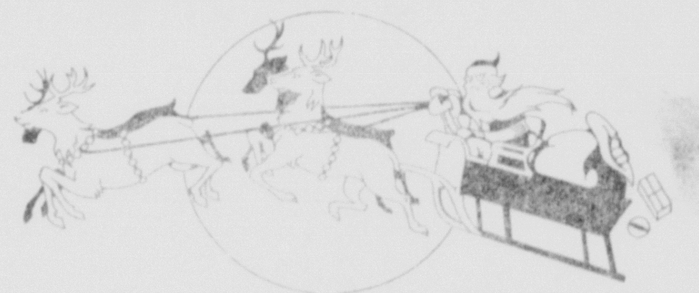
Yoemen were being prepared for the Bi-District game with Smithville to be played in Cameron Friday December 7. If the Yoemen win they would play a regional game possibly with Mason in West Texas. The Smithville game will be the toughest assignment as Mason is not rated along with the Yoemen or teams like Rosebud or Belton.

Thrall's sensational victory over Rosebud Friday night and Rockdale's win of 6 to 0 over Belton left the final score in favor of Cameron. Fans in Cameron were critical toward sport writers for the statement that Yoemen won without effort. They point out that Yoemen played their schedule, and the hardest of any conference team, due to its arrangement, and emerged with the best record and no especial credit is due other teams.

It was a season of upsets. Rosebud picked to win, was badly defeated by Taylor 29 to 7 and Thrall 20 to 0 while the Yoemen defeated Taylor 13 to 0 and Thrall 7 to 0. No team was able to convert a touchdown for the extra point in any manner against Cameron, a singular record.

Yoemen's victory was celebrated Friday night in a spontaneous acclaim by Cameron citizens joined by the band.

Contributing to the success of the season much credit is given the band led by John Calvin Haygood and the Pep Squad directed by Hilliard Thomas. Francis Cox, director of the band has an abding place in the affection of the people here for his musical production.



By Secretary Paden

Arrives Wednesday December 5 at 4 P. M.

The season is unquestionably at hand. Santa Claus is on his way. Telegrams, letters and phone calls have been received verifying this report.

The faith of childhood will again be justified while the tired eyes of sophisticated elders will show at least renewed hope. The famous personality from the northlands is on his way.

Wednesday afternoon, December 5, at 4 o'clock will be the occasion of a gigantic celebration in downtown, Cameron. Milam County schools will be closed in plenty of time for all children to participate in this yearly spectacle. Parents are assured that ample provision has been made to protect the children against possible traffic accidents. Every child will see and talk to Santa on his gorgeous silver and gold float. Every child will receive candy and plenty of it. It is an opportunity that must not be denied the child.

Milam county has just enjoyed as prosperous, if not more prosperous season than any county in the state. GET IT? It is your duty as a citizen to help make this parade a success. See that all the youngsters in your neighborhood are present.

Once again — Wednesday, December 5, 4 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S Henderson To Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

CAMERON, TEXAS
November 27, 1934.

Mr. J. B. White,
Cameron, Texas.
Dear Mr. White:

December 10th will be the 50th anniversary of our marriage. These happy years have all been lived in Milm county and we have been greatly blessed by the indulgent care of the Heavenly Father and the love and companionship of our friends, for which we aregrateful.

We wish to commemorate this event and have planned a reception in our home from 6 to 10 o'clock Monday evening, December 10th. We are not sending out invitations to Milam county friends but are cordially inviting them to be with us, through the columns of our excellent friend "The Cameron Herald."

Sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. T. S. HENDERSON.

YOEMEN TO PLAY SMITHVILLE DEC. 7

Having won the Class B District No. 25 conference title, the Cameron Yoemen, coached by L. C. Wood, will play Smithville for the Bi-District title on Friday night December 7, it was believed here this week.

Complete arrangements have been made for the bi-district game, which will be played in Cameron. After the Smithville game, if the Yoemen are successful, a zone or regional game would be played, probably with Mason. The groupings were not available for fact publication at the time of going to press.

Of interest to local fans will be the game Wednesday night with Bartlett. This engagement was made after the post season game with Rockdale was cancelled. It was being suggested here that the season game with Rockdale be played after the conference engagements of the Yoemen were out of the way.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Espada, Where Texas' First Army Gathered

—Think—Talk—Write—Texas Centennial in 1936

In 1731, two hundred and three years ago, the Franciscan fathers built Mission San Francisco de Espada near San Antonio. Continuously since that time, Mission Espada has been used for worship. The top picture shows the mission at the close of a recent Sunday service, while below is its interior. Here, in Espada's court yard the first army of Texas gathered under James W. Fannin and James Bowie during October, 1835, and from here 300 men were sent to capture San Antonio. A glorious victory resulted, the Texans routing 1,000 Mexicans with the loss of only two men, one of them Ben Milam, whose infectious enthusiasm had initiated the assault. The brick and adobe houses bordering the large Mission de Espada court yard are still intact and occupied. (Photos by R. M. Hayes, Tyler.)

Who Knows Less About More Things Than Any Man on Earth Explains: Back Seat Driving

The ability to back-seat drive most offensively must be cultivated. Either it's a natural born gift, or else it's the result of years of studious research and extensive oratorical cultivation.

If it comes to you as a gift of nature, you can skip the rest of this article.

Nobody can tell you anything you don't already know.

But if you are just starting out on a career of Back Seat Driving the LeRong Method is bound to be a wonderful help.

As soon as you settle down in the rear seat, say pointedly: "I hope you are a careful driver, Mr. Smith."

He'll generally say something, but you don't have to listen to it.

It's probably of no importance anyway.

As he leaves the curb, stant in. Ask how long he has been driving; how many wrecks has he ever had? How many poor, dead pedestrians has he successfully annihilated? How on earth did they ever grant him a driver's license?

Then suddenly slam your feet down on the floor and try to push out the floor boards. Gasp weakly, My! That was close, wasn't it Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith will say no, of course not, he missed it a mile.

Suddenly scream warningly: "Look out! Look out! Look out! Don't you see that truck?

If the truck is only half a block away, you probably won't have much fun. But if it's a quarter-mile away Swell!

Every time you go down hill have a spasm.

Catch your breath with audible gasps, cling frantically to the back of the front seat. Let out a few yelps of mental anguish.

Observe hopefully, fifteen or twenty times, that the driver has passed certain landmarks and you just simply know he is on the wrong road.

When he really does have a close call, reach over his shoulder and grab the steering wheel.

After you have brushed yourself off carefully, thumb a ride from the first car going your way.

And back-seat drive yourself to town.

If possible.

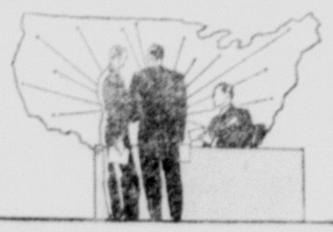
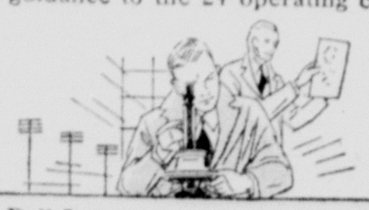
BACKSTAGE in the TELEPHONE SERVICE

THE telephone service this company furnishes you could not be as uniformly good, as quietly accurate, as far-reaching and inexpensive, if the nation-wide organization of the Bell System did not stand behind it.



There is American Telephone and Telegraph Co., the parent organization, furnishing technical and business guidance to the 24 operating companies.



There is Bell Laboratories, the research organization, constantly seeking better and more economical methods and equipment.

There is Western Electric, the supply unit, buying and manufacturing at a cost in most cases below what would be paid in competitive markets.

Each of these units stands behind the men and women who give you your local telephone service. Each is dedicated to the fundamental and enduring Bell System policy of giving good telephone service, at a fair cost to the user.

Back of this policy lies our belief that in an undertaking such as ours, planned for the long run, what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the course that will bring us the sounder, more enduring success.

WARNING! Watch others Copy G-3 claims, but remember: 1. Before a tire can give "Non-Skid Mileage" it must have REAL "Non-Skid." G-3 gives Center Traction—non-skid diamonds where they can dig in and GRIP. 2. The Body under a wide, flat, heavier tread must be able "to take it" too. Supertwist Cord (Goodyear patent) supports new G-3 tread easily.

Tremendous welcome—huge sales—follow announcement of sensational new Goodyear tire—keeps us and factory on jump—Users say "43% more non-skid mileage" understates it.

We've never seen the equal of it—the way car owners have flocked in, looked, listened, bought new G-3's these last ten weeks—and it's the same everywhere we hear. What's more, people who got G-3's months before the public announcement, report it's better than claimed! They cite mileage records to prove they're getting better than the 43% more non-skid mileage averaged by Goodyear's test fleet. THE WIND

Man has never seen me,
And yet I do much good;
I do not stay in one place—
I travel as I should.

Sometimes I am quite angry
I fly into a rage,
Then your morning paper
Has my name upon its page.

I often work for others
If they have planned for me;
They must have an implement
For me to whirl, you see.

Sometimes I'm cold as driven snow;
Sometimes I burn your face;
I am old, yes, very old—
I was before your race.

And yet I gently whisper
To flowers and lovers too,
And tell them of Springtime
And of a life that is new.

Although I get quite angry
I'm sure I've never sinned,
For I'm not a person—
I'm your friend, the wind.

FEED LOANS AVAILABLE TO STOCK FARMERS

"Stockmen in drouth areas who cannot obtain credit from other sources will continue to be eligible for emergency feed loans for their foundation herds this winter, provided they keep their credit in good standing and show their intention of repaying the loans," W. I. Meyers, Governor of the Farm Credit Administration said.

"The Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Offices," Governor Meyers said, "have made loans in the primary drouth areas without requiring chattel mortgages in order to make funds available quickly to save hundreds of thousands of cattle and other stock, but they have done so with every expectation that the money will be repaid.

"The Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration has dealt leniently with such borrowers, but each loan case has been carefully inspected. Farmers have shown their good faith by cooperating and not attempting to get loans where they are not needed, but of course we cannot expect credit will continue to be available unless borrowers keep the loans in good standing and show their intention of paying the debts.

"The Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Offices are the only source of these unsecured emergency feed loans. They are disbursed from a part of the drouth appropriation approved June 19, 1934, and are not made through any of the permanent credit institutions under the Farm Credit Administration.

"Up to November 1," Governor Meyers continued, "over 191,000 farmers and stockmen obtained these initial emergency loans to feed their stock and about 134,000 supplemental advances have been made, for a total of $21,500,000, out of the allocation of $96,785,000 for such purposes. On an average about $1,250,000 a week is being loaned to feed cattle and other stock, and during the winter additional credit will be available as needed if the borrowers keep their credit good and show their intention of paying their debts."

It Was Rat-Riddled and Rotton

It becomes the sad duty of the Herald at this time to remind you that it was just five years ago that the average American citizen concluded he was not going to become a millionaire in a few weeks and the nation faced the prospect of getting over a delirous, but frightfully expensive, joy ride.

We bring up the sad recollection to impress again the truth that the debacle should have taught, that getting rich quick was not the road to individual or national safety and security. It might be valuable to keep the lesson pasted in the hat of your sons and daughters, or better still, when you write your will, require them to read, every five years, the sad story that the newspapers told in the fall of 1929 just after reading the idiotic optimism that was blurted out by the stately figures of finance and business just before the bubble burst with the bang heard around the world.

Let's not forget that men who acquired millions made monkeys out of themselves by their predictions and established permanent reputations for economic iliteracy. As the Baltimore Evering Sun points out "they prated loudly of the basic soundness of a situation that, from ridge-pole to foundation, was rat-riddled, rotten and even shuddering into the final crash that brought it flat to the ground."

Strange Ideas of Freedom

Some people have strange misconceptions of what "free speech" and "individual rights" have.

The other day in a metropolitan area, a school boy , expelled for inciting students to riot and disorderly conduct, refused to give a pledge, as a condition of re-entrance, that he would refrain from such acts in the future, saying to do so would violate principles of "free speech and individual rights."

As a student at a public school the boy was subject to discipline and had no inherent right to agitate his views among other students. To permit such action as an inherent right would soon break up most institutions of learning. Student activities are quite properly under the control of constituted school authorities and whenever a pupil has to exercise "free speech" or "individual rights" in an objectionable manner he can do so by leaving the school.

Youngest Judge

Joe Burkett Jr., barely 21, is believed to be the youngest judge in Texas. He defeated Kerrville's veteran justice E. H. Turner, in a general election by a margin of 10 votes. Turner held office 34 years. Young Burkett only recently passed bar examination. (Texas News Photos.)

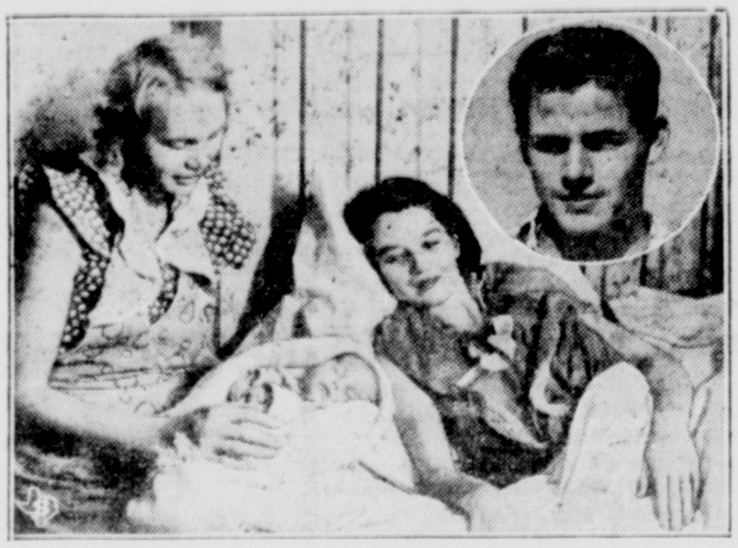
14-Year-Old Couple Have Baby



Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bert Mullins, both aged 14, of Birdville, Texas, have a bouncing new 5½-pound girl. In the pictures, the young mother is shown in bed with little Ellen Marie, while the 33-year-old grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Noah, rejoices because it is a girl. Inset is the youthful father, who is looking for work. Condition of both mother and child is reported excellent, the baby weighing but a pound less than average. (Texas News Photos.)

Fight Japan or Give In?

Looking facts in the face is one of the best way of making up one's mind.

The United States and Great Britain, after trying to get Japan to agre on some naval ratio, might as well realize that the Eastern empire is determined to enforce its rule in the Far East, regardless of consequences.

We have no idea what Japanese dominance in the Far East might mean to the United States, whether the commercial rights that we have are vital, or whether there would be any serious harm done if we turned over to Japan the future dominion of that area of the world.

However, we see very clearly that this is what the United States must do, or else make up her mind to fight the Japanese to protect her interests. There is little room for confusion because the recent course of Japan leaves no other explanation of her policies.

Arming Again Against Germany

Winston Churchill, colorful English Official, is beginning a new campaign to persuade the British that they must arm against Germany which he says has "the most educated, most industrious, most scientific, most disciplined" people in the world.

We are too far from Europe to put ourselves in the place of the British who must plan their own national security but if the Germans have half of what Churchill says they have it seems that they ought to know by this time that those who take to the sword will perish by the sword.

In recognizing the unrest created in Europe by the policies of Hitler, which seem destined to foster ill-feeling if not warfare, one may naturally wonder whether the rigorous peace terms inflicted upon such a people had something to do with their acceptance of his leadership. Moreover, one might as well face the fact the European peace can only be permanently maintained upon a basis of equality for Germany with other nations and that steps in this direction must be taken as soon as practical.

Up to the Lawyers

The Carnegie Corporation has given $50,000 to the American Bar Association to expedite its crusade for a unified national bar, with the idea of correlating the work and ideals of local bars.

The hopeful part comes in the word "ideals." While the Herald is cognizant of the high ethics that mark the practice of many lawyers in this and other sections of the nation it is a fact that the bar, as a whole, has suffered serious loss of prestige through the evil acts of unscrupulous members, who have become practical allies of criminal elements.

The work of cleaning up the bar is a duty that rests upon lawyers themselves as the American Bar Association has pointed out. However, the public has seen very little evidence of anything like an ability on the part of the lawyers to do the job without some merchandising from the outside. If they continue to ignore the demand for reform it is quite within the bound of possibilities that there will be a prejudice aroused that will, in the end, precipitate a violent reform, with much injustice to the better type of attorneys.

Christmas Trade Beginning

Christmas goods are making their appearance in the stores of Cameron and wise shoppers are getting busy without waiting upon the "shop early" slogan to spur their buying.

Taking altogether this Christmas will probably see better business in the United States than for the past few years. The gentleman of the press, who furnishes us with so many statistics, say that farmers have more money, that manufacturing pay rolls are up and that retail establishments are paying their clerks higher wages.

A good hint to local shoppers who want to get the newest Christmas merchandise is that they watch the advertisements in the Herald and buy promptly. Stores have arranged for larger stocks than in several seasons and your wants can be supplied at home.

CONTROL OF ORCHARD INSECTS DISCUSSED

Peach tree borers, shot hole borers, plum curculio, and San Jose scale are the insects most injurious to fruit trees in Milam County, and there are effective methods for the control of each, farmers of the Marlow agricultural evening school agreed at last week's meeting. This was the seventh of a series of twelve meetings that are being conducted at Marlow by E. D. Parnell, Cameron teacher of Vocational Agriculture. Twenty-three farmers and farm boys were in attendance Wednesday. The next meeting will be used to discuss the use of commercial fertilizers.

Peach tree borers may be controled by the use of one ounce of para-dichloro-benzene for each affected tree, spreading it around the base of the tree two inches from the trunk and covering with dirt. If the borers get in the upper limbs the chemical may be dissolved in cottonseed oil, at the rate of 1 pound of the chemical to 2 quarts of oil, and painted on infected places, it was stated. For shot hole borers, heavy pruning of infested limbs, heavy fertilizing to increase vigor and the use of white wash was recommended. Shot hole borers rarely attack healthy, vigorous trees, it was said, and an attempt should be made to keep all trees in a thrifty condition by using good orchard practices. Those present were urged to burn limbs that were removed by pruning and to dig up and destroy all half dead trees in or near the orchard.

San Jose scale may be controlled by either lime-sulphur spray or by the use of lubricating oil emulsion spray. Both are effective and both should be applied when the leaves have shed and the sap is down, it was stated. Spraying of dusting with lead arsenate is effective for control of the plum curculio. To collect the peaches that drop and destroy them, and the use of clean cultivation were other measures suggested as being helpful in the control of the insect that causes the worm in the fruit.

All farmers are invited to attend the weekly weekly meetings at Marlow. The group meets each Wednesday night from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Black-Draught Brings Refreshing Relief of Constipation Troubles

Constipation produces many disagreeable sensations, several of which are mentioned by Mr. T. E. Stith, of Boonville, Ind., who writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught many years when needed for biliousness and other minor ills when a laxative was needed. I have a tight feeling in my chest when I get bilious. I get dizzy and feel very tired, just don't feel like doing my work. After taking Black-Draught, I feel much better. This is why I continue to use it when needed." . . . Thedford's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, obtainable for 25¢ a package.

LAKE WILSON IS STOCKED WITH FISH

The Cameron Commercial Club authorized E. C. Cole and W. F. Paden to procure and stock Wilson lake in Ledbetter Park with fish.

As a result the following fish were procured and placed in the lake during the past week: 548 bass, 7513 green perch, 7521 Georgia Blue Gill and 3587 Georgia Red Ear—a grand total of 19,169 fish (Paden's count, Cole's check).

The fish are protected by the state game laws and recent rulings by the City Council. The latter particularly requests the co-operation of all citizens in helping to protect the finny strangers through the first two spawning seasons. This means the lake will be open to local fishermen during the late fall of 1936.

Even so—there's a silver lining! Cameron will be open to fishermen during the late fall of 1936.

protection afforded by the home and parents. I'll admit you are in a tough spot. Your parents are being very foolish, indeed. The finest protection a girl can have is to be taught high ideals and then to have the perfect trust of her parents. Girls, who are accustomed to associating with boys all of their lives are much more capable of judging the true from the false than are those who are mistakably forbidden to go with them until they are grown.

It is natural for boys and girls to like each other and want to go with one another. Try to make your father and mother see your point of view. You are old enough to know right from wrong and you should not be deprived of the pleasures of youth.

Louisa's Letter

Married People Should Give and Take

Dear Louisa:

Do you think it is right for a woman can go out at night and leave her husband to take care of the children? I married a girl from a nearby city, we live a few miles in the country, but several times each week she goes into town to musicals, bridge parties or for any other excuse she can find. We have a servant so she is not tied down in the day and she goes in everytime she is invited anywhere. She says that she goes alone because I won't go with her. Don't you think she is carrying this too far?

JOHN W.

Well, John, yours is an unusual question. Such letters generally come from wives whose husbands are gadding around and leaving the care of the children to them.

My idea of marriage is a partnership where each party goes fifty-fifty. Now everybody needs some recreation and if wives and husbands enjoy the same kind so much the better but if not a compromise must be made.

Instead of refusing to go out at all with your wife why not agree to take one or two nights off a week whatever you care for together. If and go to a movie or party or that does not suit she might take a regular night off and you do likewise. It seems to me that that should be sufficient if she has every day in which she is free to do as she pleases. I think she is very unwise to follow such a course if she cares anything about having a successful married life.

Dear Louisa:

I am seventeen years old and my parents treat me like I might be a baby. They won't let me have dates and won't trust me out of their sight with a boy. Do you think, under the circumstances it would be all right to sneak out and meet my boy friends?

JULIA.

No, Julia, I wouldn't sneak out if I were you. It will cheapen you in the eyes of the boy and take away the vastating charm and personality Miss Moore commands.

Miss Moore's performance utterly the one now being hailed as "America's singing sweetheart."

Acclaim Significant

This acclaim by fildom's finest is of especial note since members of the acting coterie are acknowledgly their own severest critics. Work must pass a very high grado of excellence to warrant such raves.

Ruth Chatterton revealed her appreciation of Miss Moore's alluring charm when she commented, "Grace Moore's picture, 'One Night of Love' proves Miss Moore is one of the most radiant personalities on the screen."

Maurice Chevalier offered the following: "Great entertainment. A picture so real it will start a new cycle. Grace Moore's performance magnifique. Victor Schertzinger's direction immensely clever. Success of charming and the whole picture a delightful entertainment," was the sincere comment Mary Pickford expressed on seeing the film. It is significant that such praise should come from America's Sweetheart to this picture should put those two friends of mine where they belong professionally—that is with the top-notchers."

Norma Shearer Enthuses

In line with the general enthusiasm evinced by Pickford, Chatterton and Chevalier is the sincere note sent Miss Moore by Norma Shearer directly following the preview. "Dear Grace," she wrote, "I was so happy over your great personal triumph in your new picture, "One Night of Love'. You completely won your audience with your warmth and charm and thrielled us with your glorious voice."

Letters to Harry Cohn, the president of Columbia Pictures Corporation expressed similar sentiments. "Please allow me to tell you how perfect in all respects I consider your latest picture, 'One Night of Love,'" wrote Herbert Marshall. "Grace Moore and a superb cast do lovely work from beginning to end and the whole thing is the sort of ideal entertainment one yearns for. Please accept my congratulations.

Swanson Thrilled

Gloria Swanson wrote as follows: "'One Night of Love' was such an exciting picture to me. Grace Moore's exquisite voice and her own beauty and charming personality are allowed full reign which makes this picture all the more enchanting. I was thrilled by it."

These are representative of many others—all of them consistently fine. "One Night of Love" has already captured America at immensely successful showings in key cities and confirms the newspapers and at the box-office, Hollywood's initial enthusiasm.

Features Fine Cast

"One Night of Love," will show December 4 and 5 at the Cameron Theatre features an imposing cast headed by Tullio Carminati, Lyle Talbot and Mona Barrie, all of whom have been the recipients of praise and commendation for the part they played in the film's success. Others in the cast are Jessie Ralph, Luis Alberni, Andres de Segurola and Nydia Westman. S. K. Lauren, James Gow and Edmund North are responsible for the screen play which is based on the story by Charles Beahan and Dorothy Speare. Victor Schertzinger directed.

Miss Gladys Davis Becomes Bride Of Gilbert McCollum Of Houston In Church Ceremony November 22nd

In the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends, a number of whom came from Houston and other cities to attend the ceremony, Miss Gloria Gladys Davis and Gilbert C. McCollum, Jr. of Houston, were united in marriage at a service of beauty and charm held at the First Presbyterian church Thursday morning, November 22 at ten o'clock. The couple exchanged their marriage vows before Rev. O. C. Acrey, pastor.

While the guests were arriving for the ceremony Robert Smith, a musician of note, gave a program of organ music.

The altar was beautiful in its simplicity where white lillies in tall white pedestal baskets adorned either side of the altar, and stood on the altar floor, woodland ferns gave color to the scene. Leading to the altar were white runners and at the chancel railing. Pews for relatives and close friends were marked with white lillies and ferns bowed with bridal maline.

Bridal Music

Miss Dora Emily Moore, attractively dressed in blue taffeta with large blue picture hat, gloves to match, sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. A. J. Triggs, looked handsome in light beige lace costume, dark brown hat, sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told," with Robert Smith accompanying.

Entrance of Bridal Party

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. Miss Imogene Sapp, sister of the bride, dressed in blue taffeta, silk gloves to match and carrying a light blue bridal bouquet, was maid of honor, and entered with John Massey of Houston, and took their places at center of altar.

Mrs. Alvin Nolte, a recent bride, was handsomely attired in rose taffeta with rose accessories and carried blue flowers and came in with Vernon Slocomb.

Mrs. George Prendergast, Jr. of Houston, sister of the bridegroom, was attired in a pretty rose taffeta and carried blue flowers, coming in with Thad Bailey.

Miss Bettye McCollum, a sister of the bridegroom, looked dainty in blue taffeta, and carried pink chrysanthemum bouquet, approached the altar with John Davis, brother of the bride.

Miss Bonnell Neinast, was prettily dressed in blue taffeta and carried pink bridal bouquet of chrysanthemums and came in with Murthy Stevenson of Houston.

Mrs. James Moss of Port Arthur, sister of the bride was matron of honor, was attired in rose taffeta, came in alone and joined the group at the altar.

The pastor came in from the right of the altar, followed by the bridegroom with best man, his father, Gilbert C. McCollum of Houston, and took their places and awaited the arrival of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Judd Davis.

The bridal dress was fashioned in elegant simplicity with demi-train, with long sleeves, trimmed with rhinestone clips and buckles, with shearred panel down the back of the dress that was further enhanced in beauty by the large Medici collar, the Chartrous moire taffeta chosen for the dress was of peculiar beauty to the blonde bride. Her bouquet was of bride's roses showered with Valley Lillies. She carried a handkerchief that was used by her mother 23 years ago that day at her wedding, and had been used by a great aunt before that, and wore a gold bracelet a gift of the bridegroom, and wore a small hat of gold sequins with short stiff veil. Her bridal bouquet was of bride rosebuds showered with Valley Lillies. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judd Davis of Cameron.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert C. McCollum of Houston and graduated from Yoe High School and afterward attended Rice Institute in Houston, and is now employed by a large business concern in Houston.

After a few days wedding trip they returned to Houston where they will be at home at 4105 Clay Ave.

Out of town relatives and friends to attend the wedding services were the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holtzclaw of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Camp of San Gabriel, Judge T. R. Mears of Galveston, Mrs. James Moss of Port Arthur, Nelson Davis and Dan Davis of Sharp, Miss Sybal Algarr of Fort Worth, a sister of the bride, Mr. W. H. Thompson of Dallas.

A beautiful rehearsal dinner was tendered the bridal party by Mr. and Mrs. Judd Davis on Wednesday evening at Mrs. India Stidham's home where the decorations were of unusual beauty. A three course dinner was served in faultless style, followed with the rehearsal at the church.

"The Texas Highway Commission is one of the most efficient in the United States," said Thomas H. McDonald, Chief of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, in a recent address at Houston. McDonald is pictured above. He has just completed an inspection trip of Texas roads for which the Federal Government this year appropriated $36,000,000. DEPRESSION ENDED SAYS FORD MOTOR CO

Dearborn, Mich., Nov. 25.—The Ford Motor Company is out of the depression.

"Today it set its production schedule for 1935 at 1,000,000 cars or better," said Henry Ford. "Our experience during the last six months and what we see in the future tells us a year of improved business is ahead."

"Do you think 1935 will end the depression?" he was asked.

"Why, the depression would be over for the whole country very soon if American industrialists would just forget these alphabet schemes and take hold of their industries and run them with good, sound American business sense. They should take hold of their country, too, in the same way and run it with good, sound American sense."

Ford managers, here from all parts of the country, expressed the belief that business conditions generally had improved sufficiently to warrant preparations for a great sales year in 1935.

Four years have passed since the Ford Motor Company had a production year of more than 1,000,000 cars. In 1930 1,485,000 care were produced.
